Meruelo Media Signs-Up US Army Partnership! Meruelo Media becomes a US Army PaYS Community Partner

(KPWR 105.9 - Los Angeles) Meruelo Media announced today that it proudly became an official US Army partner for the Youth Success (PaYS) program in the Los Angeles, California area. By doing so, Meruelo Media will guarantee job interviews to transitioning Soldiers. The US Army Partnership for Youth Success (PaYS) initiative is a program that connects private industry with transitioning Soldiers seeking new career opportunities after honorable service to our Nation.

US Army's Southern California recruiting Commander, Lieutenant Colonel Patrick M. Flood and President of Meruelo Media, Otto Padron, (also a US Army Reserve Officer) will preside over the signing ceremony held on Friday, March 29th at the Meruelo Media Studios, located at 4975 West Pico Blvd, Los Angeles, CA 90019. The event will start promptly at 9am followed shortly after by the PaYS signing ceremony and a lunch.

"This US Army PaYS partnership is very personal to me," Otto Padron stated, "... my US Army experience armed me with the strong values of Loyalty, Duty, Respect, Selfless Service, Honor, Integrity and Personal Courage. These priceless principles and an amazing work ethic is what transitioning Soldiers bring to the workplace. We are proud to stand together with the other great companies who have joined the PaYS movement."
