III. RECRUITMENT INITIATIVES

	Type of Recruitment Initiative (Menu Selection)	Brief Description of Activity
1	Management-level training regarding methods of ensuring equal employment opportunity and prevention of discrimination	Between August 12 th and August 23 rd , 2024, our SEU's VP/Market Manager and HR Business Partner were required to participate in a Check-In Discussion—a 90-minute session—related to the Empathetic Leadership session attended in July 2024. In the Check-In Discussion, small groups met with a facilitator to delve into the applicability of techniques introduced in the July session to discuss which were tried, which worked well, and where adjustments could be made.
2	Management-level training concerning methods of ensuring equal employment opportunity and preventing discrimination	On August 14, 2024, our SEU's Operations Manager as well as our HR Business Partner participated in a presentation conducted by Cumulus Media Inc.'s Executive Vice President and General Counsel as well as its VP, Human Resources entitled, "The FCC's Equal Employment Opportunity Rules: Your Guide to Compliance for Cumulus Market Managers & HR Business Partners." The FCC's EEO recruitment, recordkeeping, and reporting requirements were reexamined and reinforced, after which questions were entertained.
3	Management-level training regarding methods of ensuring equal employment opportunity and prevention of discrimination	During the first half of December 2024, our SEU's Market Manager and HR Business Partner were required to participate in a further facilitated session and presentation conducted by the firm H3C, entitled, Perpetuating Allyship . This session was designed as a Leadership Lab—a 60-minute session—to discuss the meaning of " Perpetuating Allyship " and introduced tools, techniques, and methods associated with this topic. Specifically, this session focused on: how one becomes an ally; the importance of not practicing performative allyship; the active, consistent, and arduous practice of how persons in a position of privilege and power can unlearn and re-evaluate how to support marginalized individuals; how to understand the needs of others without assuming what they want; how to be more intentional as an ally; and several key do's and don'ts about allyship.

4	Management-level training regarding methods of ensuring equal employment opportunity and prevention of discrimination	Between December 16 th and 20 th , 2024, our SEU's VP/Market Manager and HR Business Partner were required to participate in a Check-In Discussion—a 90-minute session—related to the Perpetuating Allyship session attended in early December 2024. In the Check-In Discussion, small groups met with a facilitator to delve into the applicability of the techniques introduced in the early December session to discuss which were tried, which worked well, and where adjustments could be made.
5	Participate in Job Fair	On February 22, 2025, our SEU 's Market and Operations Managers as well as our Program Directors (“Managers”) participated in the Wisconsin Broadcasters Association Student Seminar Career Fair. The Managers occupied a Cumulus Media booth and were available to answer questions and educate students and other attendees about radio broadcasting, our Stations, and job openings within the SEU.
6	Participate in event sponsored by or on behalf of an educational institution regarding careers in broadcasting	On March 8, 2025, our SEU hosted a local student from Denmark High School in Denmark, Wisconsin, to “shadow” our Market Manager. He welcomed her, walked her through our facilities, and talked with her about the various job/career opportunities within the cluster. Given the interest she expressed in programming, he spent the majority of their time together focused on this aspect of radio broadcasting. He showed her how to run a board and discussed what goes into music scheduling, imaging and more.
7	Participate in event sponsored by or on behalf of a community organization related to careers in broadcasting	On March 19, 2025, the SEUs Market, Operations, and Programming Managers participated in the Oshkosh Business Expo sponsored by the Oshkosh Chamber of Commerce. They staffed the Cumulus Media booth and answered questions and educated interested attendees about radio, the SEUs stations, job openings at each station, and job shadowing opportunities at the SEU.

	Type of Recruitment Initiative (Menu Selection)	Brief Description of Activity
8	Management-level training regarding methods of ensuring equal employment opportunity and prevention of discrimination and harassment	During the months of April and May of 2025, our SEU participated in harassment prevention training. All hiring managers—Market Manager, Operations Manager, and Hiring Managers—as well as the entire staff were required to complete a series of sessions prepared by the Health & Safety Institute (HSI) entitled, Understanding Harassment and Anti-Harassment – Managers (6 sessions for staff and 9 for managers). The sessions explained what harassment is, provided tips to help understand offenders and targets, offered bystander training, described warning signs, and instructed viewers about how to create a healthy workplace culture. There was additional training for managers about supervisory responsibilities and how to conduct investigations regarding claims of harassment. In order to obtain a certificate of participation, all employees were required to take a quiz following their completion of each session.
9	Management-level training regarding methods of ensuring equal employment opportunity and prevention of discrimination	During the months of April and May of 2025, this SEU participated in additional training. All hiring managers as well as the entire staff were required to complete the Health & Safety Institute (HSI) on-line course, Celebrating Diversity How It Fosters Belonging, Seeing All Sides, and Uncovering All That We Share , presented in three segments. These segments defined how companies and colleagues can make everyone feel part of a group, how practicing empathy helps us see life from someone else's point of view, and the benefits of seeking common ground for the sake of unity.
