Sec. 2-362. Implementation.

As an expression of the standards of conduct for members expected by the city, this code of conduct is intended to be self-enforcing. It therefore becomes most effective when members are thoroughly familiar with it and embrace its provisions. For this reason, standards shall be included in the regular orientations for candidates for City Commission, applicants to boards, commissions, and committees and newly elected and appointed officials. Upon adoption of this code, annual thereafter and when sworn in, members entering office shall sign a statement affirming they have read and understood the city code of conduct. In addition, the code of conduct shall be reviewed bi-annually by the City Commission, boards, commissions, and committees, and the City Commission shall consider recommendations from boards, commissions, and committees and update it as necessary in November of even-numbered years.

Sec. _____. Compliance and enforcement.

This code of conduct expresses standards of conduct expected for members of City Commission, boards, commissions, and committees. Members themselves have the primary responsibility to assure that standards are understood and met, and that the public can continue to have full confidence in the integrity of government. The chairs of boards, commissions, and committees and the mayor have the additional responsibility to intervene when members' actions appearing to be in violation of the code of conduct are brought to their attention. The City Commission, by a vote of a majority of its members, may impose sanctions on members whose conduct does not comply with the city's standards, such as reprimand, formal censure, removal from meeting (if the member's conduct is disruptive or impedes the orderly conduct of business at the meeting), or removal from any position or assignment to which the member has been appointed by City Commission. The City Commission also may act to remove members of boards, commissions, and committees from office. The Commission shall not, however, have the power to remove a duly-elected official from office except as may be permitted by State law.

The City of Rome Code of Conduct for Elected Officials and Members of Appointed Boards, Commissions, and Committees

STATEMENT OF COMMITMENT

As a member of the City Commission or of City board, commission or committee, I agree to uphold the Code of Conduct for elected and appointed officials adopted by the City Commission and conduct myself by the following model of behavior. I will:

Recognize the worth of individual members and appreciate their individual talents, perspectives and contribution;

Help create an atmosphere of respect and civility where individual members, City staff and the public are free to express their ideas and work to their full potential;

Conduct my personal and public affairs with honesty, integrity, fairness, and respect for others;

Respect the dignity and privacy of individuals and organizations;

Keep the common good as my highest purpose and focus on achieving constructive solutions for the public benefit;

Avoid and discourage conduct, which is divisive or harmful to the best interests of the City;

Treat all people with whom I come in contact in the way I wish to be treated.

Before I speak or act I will ask myself the following four questions:

- 1. Is it the truth?
- Is it fair to all concerned?
- 3. Will it build goodwill between all concerned?
- 4. Will it be beneficial to all concerned?

I affirm that I have read and that I understand the City of Rome's Code of Conduct.
